Care for the broken hearted...

A Word from Our Executive Director

My third anniversary with ACPRC was July 18th. As I reflect on the past three years, we have grown so much. New center locations, new staff, new donors, and new volunteers. God has blessed us with unbelievable opportunities to serve our clients, communities and each other. In Romans 12:9-13 His word says to, "Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; rejoicing in HOPE, patient in tribulation, continuing steadfastly in prayer; distributing to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality."

That is what we do. We don't judge. We don't discriminate. We care for those with broken hearts and broken lives. We rejoice with those who see the future and embrace it. But even when you embrace the future, trials exist. We provide in ways others can't. We are here to serve and while serving, be the hands and feet of Jesus! We bring hope! When people are weighed down, they can start to forget that people care. That God is near. That He listens. He doesn't turn away from broken hearts. He provides a way where there is no way. He often uses us to provide the way!

We can be weighed down. We can be brokenhearted for our clients! Many of them don't know the Lord. They know of Him, but they don't know Him. Without Jesus, they are seriously making the most important decision in their lives...the choice between life and death. We take our ministry and the work the Lord has charged us with very seriously. Lives and souls are at stake!

It seems like we are seeing more abortion-minded clients than ever before. They come to us with no hope and what we give to them is hope. Every morning our staff and volunteers put on the armor of God and prepare to love those who come to us unconditionally. They prepare to face the broken hearted. Prayer is our greatest defense. Prayer is our greatest weapon! Will you join us and pray? Pray for the broken hearted. Pray for our staff and volunteers, pray for our clients, pray for the families we touch, the babies saved and pray we can bring the HOPE that they need!

UPDATE

Thank you

To date we have raised over $45,300.00, an increase over last year! As money continues to pour in we want to say THANK YOU to members of the 67 local churches for bottling up HOPE in support of us! If you still have bottles, you can drop them off at any of our centers or call us. We'd be happy to send a volunteer to pick them up. Our fall newsletter will list our participating entities.

welcome

We welcome Pastor Mike Brown to our ACPRC Board of Directors. Mike and his wife, Amanda, of 32 years have been in Holyoke since 2018. They originally hail from the parts of Texas, Kansas, and Oklahoma that look just like Holyoke, so they're right at home. Mike and Amanda both serve at the First Christian Church in Holyoke. They have three daughters and even a few grandchildren. Prior to the ministry at FCC, Mike's professional background has been in electronic physical security. He's been a grateful follower of Jesus since 1992 and would love to tell you how his life has been transformed through Christ and for Christ.
